FOREWORD

Information, sometimes, is perceived as an unhealthy substitute for knowledge. On certain occasions, it is pointed out that knowledge is lost in information. Though these observations characterize and, in a way, distinctly compartmentalize between 'knowledge' and 'information', yet, a pregnant one, there are situations, places, and institutions where information has the effect potentiality to assume the position and platform of knowledge. However, it has to satisfy certain conditions precedent, i.e., precision, terminological exactitude and sincerity of effort. The compilation, "Understanding Supreme Court Better" by Law Information Centre (LawInC) reflects these aspects with demonstrable sincerity.

On a first glance, one may admit to his thought that such a compilation is nothing but structurally processed data, but on a slighter scrutiny it is really an invitation to curiosity which springs from an innate desire to know. It is not a depiction of history of the Courts in the "historical sense" but decidedly it provides such information which has historicity. The compilation makes one inquisitive about certain aspects which otherwise one may not care to know or one may think not necessary to know. But for a person who has the spirit of pertinent curiosity to find gratification in fruitful information, such information is never to be dated, for it is always relevant and lively.

I must, without any reservation, acclaim the sustained industry of all those who have associated themselves in preparation of such a compilation. I also trust, with the passage of time, the Law Information Centre may conceive the idea of providing certain other kinds of information which would be an intellectual delicacy.

INTRODUCTION

Supreme Court of India is the most powerful, dynamic and effective institution of the largest democracy in the world. From the day it was inaugurated on January 28, 1950 till December 31, 2013 Supreme Court has worked for 64 yrs. totaling to 128 terms. During this period 212 judges have been elevated to the Supreme Court, out of which 30 are presently sitting judges. These are some of the facts and statistics about Supreme Court and 212 Hon'ble Judges of Supreme Court, who have vigilantly read, heard, considered and taken decisions in about 1.5 million petitions/appeals filed during this period. The information provided in this compilation is based on an analysis of 42,854 judgments and orders (reportable and non – reportable) delivered during this period and have been published in Supreme Court Reports (SCR official Law Report). The enormous amount of work undertaken by Supreme Court while maintaining the highest dignity, decorum and distinction is unique and amazing and has no match, parallel or comparison, with any other apex court in the world.

Law Information Center is presenting this compilation with great awe, admiration, esteem and respect for a great institution, which has held its head high and that of a great culture, tradition and heritage - India, that is Bharat

Note:

1. Great care and all possible efforts have been taken to precisely update the data to the best of the abilities. However, unconsciously or due to inaccuracy in information, some serious or some not so serious errors may have crept in the data and compilation of the data. Such errors would be totally inadvertent, unintentional and bonafide. Law Information Center takes full responsibility for such errors and seeks indulgence and apology for such errors. Any person who comes across any such errors may immediately report to Law Information Center, so that the subsequent editions would be corrected to that extant. Thanks for support and encouragement.

2. Hon'ble Justice Ramachander Naik and Hon'ble Justice Khaleeluzzaman Siddiqui, who have been members of 4 judgments each, of Supreme Court of India (Hyderabad) were appointed in 1950 as ad-hoc judges of Supreme Court, to dispose appeals which were pending before the than Privy Council at Hyderabad. The name of these two Hon'ble Judges, whose judgments are reported in Supreme Court Reports, do not find place in the official list of judges of Supreme Court of India and as such there will be difference in the data maintained by Supreme Court with respect to number of Judges and Law Information Center.

3. Some data relating to sitting judges have not been included in the listing of some information, because they have miles to go…

My acknowledgements and thanks to many of my colleagues at the Bar who extended great help, after the first edition to give several suggestions and in correction of data.
